User Rights

As a user you have the following rights:

1. A right to be informed about our collection and use of personal information;
2. A right of access to the personal information we hold about you;
3. A right to rectification if any personal information we hold about you is inaccurate or incomplete;
4. A right to ask us to delete any personal information held about you unless we are obliged to retain the information for other legal reasons;
5. A right to restrict or prevent the processing of your personal information;
6. A right to data portability (obtaining a copy of your data to re-use with another service or organisation);
7. A right to object to the use of your data for particular purposes.

If you wish to make a request for access to your personal information under the Data Protection Act 1998 (data subject access request), please submit your request in writing to Stephanie Whittam at House Revolution Limited, 39a Newmarket Road, Norwich, Norfolk, NR2 2HN or email stephanie@hammondlee.co.uk and we shall acknowledge your request and confirm what we will need from you in order to carry out your request.

How We Store Your Data

When you enquire or register for services provided by us, you will provide us with certain personal information such as name, address and contact details. This information may be provided by telephone, by electronic communications, online through our website or via direct contact with our employees. This information will be stored on our computer systems (Jupix), cloud-based server and in our manual records.

We will only store your data in the UK.

The Information We Collect

The information that you provide will allow us to process your registration, confirm your identity and communicate with you regarding relevant services to suit your needs. The relevant information is then used by us, our affiliated agencies and carefully selected third parties to communicate with you on any matter relating to your relationship with The Company in general. Your information may also be transferred or forwarded to our affiliated agencies or carefully selected third parties for administration, marketing or information gathering and similar purposes.

Any calls that you make to our teams may be recorded for business management, training and security purposes.

If you contact us or send us an email, we will retain the details you provide to us including your name, your email address, and any other information which you choose to give us.

We may place cookies on your computer or device. For further information on the cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them see our cookie policy.

How We Process Your Data

We may use the information you give us in the following ways:

1. to carry out contractual obligations which exist between you and us and to provide you with the information and services that you request from us;
2. to notify owners of properties, you tell us you are interested in, of your interest;
3. to store your search criteria and property preferences so that we may contact you with details of properties which may be of interest to you;
4. to provide details of your property to interested parties if you ask us to provide property marketing services (which we will display in our offices, in marketing emails, on portals and on information sheets we produce to market your property). On occasion, where it is in your best interest, we may provide limited information regarding your property to carefully selected potential buyers in order to gain interest in your property for marketing purposes;
5. to provide you with information about other services we offer that are similar to those that you have already purchased or enquired about;
6. to provide you with information about services we feel may interest you;
7. to ensure that content from our site is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your computer;
8. we may make mention of your property (but not your full name or identity) in general agent marketing following the sale of your property.

We may use the information we collect about you in the following ways:

1. to administer our site and for internal operations, including troubleshooting, data analysis, testing, research, statistical and survey purposes;
2. to improve our site to ensure that content is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your computer;
3. to allow you to participate in interactive features of our service, when you choose to do so;
4. as part of our efforts to keep our site safe and secure;
5. to measure or understand the effectiveness of advertising we serve to you and others, and to deliver relevant advertising to you;
6. to make suggestions and recommendations to you and other users of our site about goods or services that may interest you or them.

We will delete your personal information once your request has been met or the service has been provided, except where:

1. You were interested in details of properties we are offering, when we will continue to hold your information in order to send you information on other properties that may interest you;
2. You become a client or a buyer of a property;
3. You require us to retain it for longer;
4. We are required to retain it for longer for other legal reasons.

You have the right to withdraw your consent to us using your data and to request that we delete it.

Money Laundering Regulations 2017

In order to comply with Money Laundering Regulations 2017, we will request personal information and documentation from both vendors and purchasers to confirm identity and address. In the case of a purchase, we will request evidence of funding and the source of any funds being used. We will also use some of your personal data to carry out electronic identity verification. The data collected for the purposes of Money Laundering Regulations 2017 will be processed for the purposes of preventing money laundering and terrorist financing and will not be used for any other purpose without your express consent.

Third Party Services

Customers using our recommended third-party services should note the data that you provide may also be shared with the third-party and used for the purpose of facilitating the transaction. If you are using the services provided by one of our recommended third-party referral services we may pass your details to them for the purposes of general administration and preventing money laundering and terrorist financing.

We may, during the course of your relationship with us, request additional information relevant to the provision of specific services; this could include details such as previous property ownership and financial details for mortgage purposes. This information may be shared with third parties where they are involved in the delivery of products or services. In such instances all information provided to the third party will be subject to the terms of this privacy policy and those of the relevant third-party privacy policy.

Some of the services provided by us may be supplied by third parties and therefore we will pass on the information required to the relevant party, in order to fulfil your needs. So that we are able to monitor supplier performance and customer satisfaction, these third parties will pass certain information such as fulfilment and complaints data back to us. Your information will be handled in accordance with the relevant data protection legislation at all times.

We will use your contact details to keep you informed about suitable products and services provided by House Revolution Limited, its affiliated agencies and carefully selected third parties. This may involve sharing some or all of your information with carefully selected third parties.

Where information is to be shared with carefully selected third parties, we will endeavour to provide you with a further opportunity to opt out of receiving details of individual products and services at the relevant time.

If you would prefer not to receive information from House Revolution Limited, its affiliated agencies or carefully selected third parties you can opt out by contacting any of our branches.

From time to time we may provide your information to third parties, such as Feefo, for review purposes so that we can monitor and improve the services we provide. We, our agents, our affiliated agents and carefully selected third parties may occasionally contact you including by post, email or telephone to ask you for your feedback and comments on our services.

How We Keep Your Information Safe

The information that we collect is stored on a secure database or cloud-based server with restricted access or in secure locations with restricted physical access. We follow strict procedures in line with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulations to ensure that personal information is not damaged, destroyed or disclosed to a third party without your permission and to prevent unauthorised access to your information. We also use a number of security measures to prevent electronic access. The access to and use of the information that we collect is restricted to our employees who need the information to perform a specific job role or activity. Where information is shared with third parties in line with this policy similar security measures are used to protect your information.

Your information will be held and processed on computers within the UK and will not be transferred outside of the European Economic Area.

We will retain your information for a reasonable period or for as long as is required by law.

The Internet is not a secure medium and as such you acknowledge and agree that House Revolution Limited shall not, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be liable to you for any unauthorised usage, interception, distribution, damage or destruction of personal data. When communicating with us you should ensure that you take all reasonable precautions to protect any sensitive personal data.

Applicability

This Policy applies only to your use of this website. The website may contain links to other websites. Please note that we have no control over how your data is collected, stored, or used by other websites and we advise you to check the policies of any such websites before providing any data to them.

On occasion we carry out surveys or other promotional activities which may be for our own benefit or for more general interest. Participation in any survey is entirely optional.

We would also like to keep you informed (by telephone, post or e-mail) of selected products and services available from us, our affiliated agencies and our carefully selected third parties. If you would prefer not to receive this information you can update your communication preferences at any time by either sending an e-mail to one of our branches or by writing to us at our registered address.

If any of the information that you have provided to us changes, for example if you change your e-mail address or name, please update us as soon as possible to avoid personal information being sent to incorrect locations. Likewise, if you experience any issues please contact us immediately.

Your Consent

BY SUBMITTING YOUR INFORMATION, YOU GIVE YOUR UNCONDITIONAL CONSENT TO THE USE OF THAT INFORMATION AS SET OUT IN THIS POLICY.

If we change our Privacy Policy we will post the changes on this page. Continued use of our services will signify that you agree to any such changes.

In providing information about individuals other than yourself, you confirm that you have obtained express consent for use of such information.

Contacting Us

We welcome your comments and feedback regarding the Site and our Privacy Policy. If you would like to get in touch with any suggestions or enquiries, please send an email to one of our branches. Contact details can be found on our website.

If you have any cause for complaint about our use of your personal data, please contact one of our branches. We will address your concerns and attempt to solve the problem to your satisfaction.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office. For further information about your rights, please contact the Information Commissioner's Office, or your local Citizens Advice Bureau.
